John Edwin Fultz, son of Augusta and Margaret (Wallace) Fultz was born May 8, 1845, at Pfafftown N.C.

He was happily married to Mary Laura L. Dalton, Mar. 2, 1871.

This union was blessed with six sons and one daughter, Walter, Ferdinand, David, Dalton, Wilton, son, and Enzie.

His wife, and two sons David and Wilton, having preceded him to the grave.

He is survived by 28 grand-children and 7 great-grandchildren.

He affiliated with Pfafftown Christian Church, when a young man, and retained his membership at this place until death, when he transferred to the church triumphant, Mar. 19, 1926, at the age of 80 years 10 months 11 days.

He served in the confederate army under James B. Gordon, was captured at Point Lookout, and remained a prisoner on an island near Wilmington

Mar. 19, 1926, at the age of 85 of 10 months 11 days.

He served in the confederate army under James B. Gordon, was captured at Point Lookout, and remained a prisoner on an island near Wilmington N.C. until the close of the war.

He lived the greater part of his life in and around Pfalltown, as a farmer, and was regarded by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, as straightforward, inoffensive, upright
good man.
